Financial Wellbeing and the Impact on Performance in the Workplace

Employees are worried about their financial wellbeing...

- And they expect their levels of concern to grow with the cost of living increasing. 57%

Employees expect more financial wellbeing support from their workplace.

- However, opinions differ across generations. 49%

Financial stress is affecting employee workplace performance.

- But many don’t feel comfortable discussing it at work. 80%

Supporting employee financial wellbeing influences attraction and retention.

- 3 in 5 feel that offering additional support for financial wellbeing is important in retaining and attracting employees. 7%

Insurance cover is a highly valued benefit.

- 83% believe that offering life insurance is an important benefit for employees. 30%

Get in touch!